Faith for Dark Days

When dark days come-and they come to us all
We feel so helpless and lost and small.
We cannot fathom the reason why,
And it is futile for us to try
To find the answer, the reason or cause,
For the master plan is without any flaws.
And when the darkness shuts out the light,
We must lean on faith to restore our sight,
For there is nothing we need know
If we have faith that wherever we go
God will be there to help us to bear
Our disappointments, pain, and care.
For He is our Shepherd, our Father, our Guide,
And you're never alone with the Lord at your side.
So may the great Physician attend you,
And may His healing completely mend you.

Acknowledgements

Words cannot express our thanks to each of you during this very painful loss in our lives. We thank God for His power that has kept us and comforted us. We thank those who covered us in prayer, cried with us, visited us and called us. We thank our Pastor and the Old Strom Branch Church Family. Special thanks to Sam Moore. NHC and Staff and her extended family, The Lighthouse Tabernacle Church. Extra special thank you to Floyd and Martha Thompson. We thank everyone for extending your love to us, and to those who participated in some form in this homegoing. - The Family

REFLECTIONS

Sunset and evening star, and one clear call for me! And may there be no moaning of the bar, when I put out to sea.

Reverend Harriedell Devine Lewis was born on February 18, 1929, to the late Frank and Ida Butler Devine. She set out to sea on March 26, 2019.

Harriedell was born an outgoing and nurturing person who never met a stranger. She gave her heart to God and joined the Old Storm Branch Baptist Church. She attended the public schools of Aiken County and the Luvenia School of Beauty where she became a licensed beautician. Her thirst of knowledge and love of God led her to answer the call to ministry. She was a former pastor of Ridge Hill Baptist Church in North Augusta and she worked at Bath Mill in Bath, South Carolina. In later years, she became a foster grandmother.

One of Harriedell's favorite books of the Bible was John specifically Chapter 14. She would often say "Read this to receive the gift of the Holy Spirit". She had a passion for reading and putting together jigsaw puzzles as large as 1000 pieces. And we cannot forget how she LOVED the TV show Bonanza.

Harriedell loved people of ALL races, ages, status levels, and comfortably communicated with anyone she met. Harriedell was a giving person who found true pleasure in blessing others.

She was preceded in death by her child, Sylvester Devine, Sr. of North Augusta, South Carolina; parents, Frank and Ida Devine; sisters, Sadie Foston, Lena Davis, Rosena Cummings and Mamie Devine, brothers; Clifford Devine, Willie Louis Devine, Frank Devine Jr. and Sylvester Devine, Sr.

Harriedell leaves to cherish her memory: sister, Carrie Martin; five grandchildren, Cassandra Devine, Tia Devine, Sylvester Devine Jr., all Graniteville, SC, Angela (Glenn) Bates, Clearwater, SC and Keith Harris, Augusta, GA; godson Charles (Lillie) Devine; six great-grandchildren, Kiarra Devine, Graniteville, SC, Sylvester Devine III "Trey", Jayla Devine, both of Grovetown, GA, Jayden Devine, Columbia, SC, Lakeithia Harris and Lakeisha Harris, both of Aiken, SC; two great-great-grandchildren, Casen Smith and Erryn Harris both of Aiken, SC; special extended family members, Floyd and Martha Thompson; and a host of nieces, nephews,and other relatives and friends.
