Don't Be Saddened

Don't be saddened because I'm gone,
Do everything the same and live on.
Don't shed wild tears; I don't want you to cry,
Let God wipe the tears from your eyes.
And though from you I had to depart,
Just let my memories remain in your heart.
Don't be saddened for I am at rest,
I know you all loved me, but God loved me best.

Acknowledgements

The Family of the late Queen W. "Sister" Antley, wishes to express their gratefulness to Pastor William B. Blount and the G.Y.Z. Baptist Church Family and family friends, for all acts of kindness expressed during her illness and our period of bereavement. A special "Thanks" to the Windermere Rehabilitation Facility for the excellent care given to Queen during her stay. May God Bless each of you.

The Obituary

"The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want . . ."
Psalm 23:1

Queen Ester W. Antley, "Sister", as she was fondly called by family and friends, entered into rest Tuesday, November 19, 2019, at Windermere Rehabilitation Facility in Augusta, Georgia. She was born to the late Willie M. White, Sr. and Ester D. White McKie on January 5, 1943.

The family moved to the Gracewood Area of Augusta, Georgia, where she attended the schools of Richmond County. Queen attended Spirit Creek Baptist Church and was a diligent Sunday School member, often representing the Sunday School by singing solos. She later joined the Greater Young Zion Baptist Church and was a member of the choir, until her health declined.

After relocating to the city, she was united in matrimony to Ernest Antley, Sr., and to this union, five children were born, a daughter, Robinstein and four sons, Ernest, Jr., the late Antonio, Alfonzo and Robert.

Also preceding her in death were: bonus mother, Annie M. Edwards White; and brothers, Daniel, James and Eugene White.

Left to cherish her memory are: daughter, Robinstein (DeWitt) Gant; three sons, Ernest Antley, Jr., Alfonso Antley and Robert M. Antley; daughter-in-law, Shamekia Antley; brothers, Philliph (Lejeune) White, Willie M. White, Ronnie (Maryand) White, William McKie; bonus brother, Marion (Eunice) Edwards, Sr.; bonus sisters, Josie B. Becton and Carolyn Edwards; and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
