Welcome Home

When I am gone, release me, let me go. I have so many things to see and do, You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears, But be thankful we had so many good years. I gave you my love, and you can only guess How much you've given me in happiness. I thank you for the love that you have shown, But now it is time I traveled on alone. So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must, Then let your grief be comforted by trust. It is only for a while that we must part, So treasure the memories within your heart. I won't be far away for life goes on. And if you need me, call and I will come. Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near. And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear, All my love around you soft and clear. And then, when you come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile and a 'Welcome Home'.

Obituary

JORDAN LANDON KING was born to Bobby Lee King and Lee Genise King on February 9, 1994 in Augusta, Georgia. He entered into rest on July 25, 2017.

In his early years as a child, he was baptized at Good Shepherd Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Clarence Moore. Jordan was a 2012 graduate of Westside High School and also attended Savannah State University for three years. He served faithfully and dutifully in the Army National Guard for five years.

Jordan began his career at the Augusta State Medical Prison on September 16, 2016.

Jordan was a member of All About Change Ministries, Augusta, Georgia, where Pastor Robert Elam was his mentor and where he served as an Armor Bearer. Jordan was a student of the Word of God; he spent time daily in study and in prayer. He ministered daily on social media, providing the people of God with messages of wisdom, edification and inspiration. In his spare time, he enjoyed traveling and spending time working out and playing basketball at the gym.

He was preceded in death by his beloved grandmother, Sister Bessie Milton of Savannah, Georgia and his great aunt, Annie Lee Matthews.

He leaves to cherish his loving memories: his mother, Lee Genise King; father, Bobby (Tonya) King; identical twin brother and best friend, Justin London King; dear younger sister, Kennedy MaKala King, all of Augusta, Georgia; grandparents, Herman and Betty Joe King, Soperton, Georgia; Pastor Robert Elam; his godparents; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Matthew 11:28

28 Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Tribute To A Young King

By Jené Walker, Godmother

Born into a royal family, how befitting is the last name King; a young king who was well bred from amazing parents and upbringing.

Jordan was caring, a protector of women, and sensitive to our needs; mild mannered, kind hearted, giving and so sweet.

Jordan was good to his mama, a replica of his dad, always eager to do his work; wanted to satisfy his supervisors, and usher everyone into the church.

Connected to his twin physically and spiritually, always wanted him near; protected and adored his baby sister, his presence improved the atmosphere.

A young king who served his country, but served the kingdom of God even more; he was a student of the Word of God, and shared it for God's people to soar.

Decrees from a Young King

"God's conviction of your sins is probably worse than any punishment a man can give out."

~ Jordan King
