IN LOVING MEMORY OF

Sharon Renee' Lampkin

June 14, 1968 - October 29, 2017

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
 He leadeth me beside the still waters.
 He restoreth my soul:
 He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
 For his name's sake.
 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
 I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
 Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine
 enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil;
 My cup runneth over.
 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
 All the days of my life:
 and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

The Obituary

Sharon Renee Lampkin was born June 14, 1968, in Augusta, Georgia to Georgia Mae Lampkin and Earnest Patterson. On October 29, 2017, at 2:50 A.M., she gained her wings.

At an early age, she was baptized at Canaan of Galilee Baptist Church and later moved her membership to Solid Rock Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by her daughter, Nalani Crim; mother, Georgia Lampkin; and step-father, James Lampkin.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her father, Earnest Patterson; two sisters, Veronica Lampkin (Reggie), Cassie Heggs (Lorenzo); two brothers, Ronnie Lampkin (Sharon) and Willie Thomas Lampkin; two special nieces, Serenity and Anslee Paschal; special godsister, Tiffany Rollings; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Sharon's Journey

I can't mention enough how much we miss you. Before I attempt to address this issue, I may need a box of tissue; but, forgive my tears and let me cry, God has your soul now.

Let her fly, let her coast beyond the oceans, and view the whole world from the sky. Let my niece who was there from day one of her illness, have her peace and not dwell on why.

I know for sure that we all made you proud. When you entered into a room, your presence would light up the crowd. Cracking jokes about little things, tribulations, and trials, you motivated us all. You were the backbone of our lives, you were the strongest I knew; you took a stand and grew.

I developed some qualities inside of me that only a niece could endure. Regardless of what we been through, our niece kept much sinew. She was headstrong, and if she led you wrong, she would own up to what she'd done.

In my heart, I feel it's great from where her spirit has brought us. No words to describe the pain we've endured. The dear Lord has taught us, the Most High deserves a thumbs up as God called her home.

Rest on my niece, we love you, but God loves you best.

Auntie Mary
