

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Words from the Family

We'll always remember that special smile, that caring heart, and that warm embrace you always gave us. You being there for us through good and bad times, no matter what. We'll always remember you because there'll never be another one to replace you in our hearts and the love we will always have for you.

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern, and kindness shown to them during this time of bereavement.

Obituary

VIVIAN RUTH MCCOLLUM MCLAURIN was born to the late Cardoza and Rosa Holloway McCollum on April 23, 1920 in Bennettsville, South Carolina. She was a long time member of Tabernacle Baptist Church.

She met and married her late husband, Fred McLaurin in 1941 and from that union came two daughters, the late Portia Twilla McLaurin Edwards and the late Dr. Cassandra Iris McLaurin.

In addition to her parents and daughters, she was preceded in death by: her brother, Cardoza McCollum; sisters, Luella McCollum and Katrina McCollum Bell; and brother-in-law, Willard Bell.

Vivian leaves to cherish her memories: two grandsons, Joseph R. Edwards (Wonelle) and Michael Edwards (Steffanie); son-in-law, Willie Edwards; great grandsons, Vennoris Edwards, Michael Edwards, Jr., Christopher Edwards, Christopher White (Montriece), Willie Jones, III and Christian Edwards; great granddaughters, Portia Edwards (Brandon) and Kortney White; nephews and nieces, Rosalyn Cole, Anita Cameron (Calvin) Bernard Bell (Madeline), Cardoza McCollum, Jr. and Katrice Bell-Jefferson; the special REM³ Family; and many loving friends.

Vivian was a very loving, caring and giving person. She was able to spend her last years of life cared for by her grandson, Joseph and his wife, Wonelle, where she was able to have her wish come true of dying peacefully at home.
