I'm Still Here

- POEM SELECTED BY SISTER CAROLYN EXPOSITO -

I KNOW YOU LOVE ME, BUT GOD LOVES ME TOO

MY JOURNEY HAS COME TO AN END

AND MY WORK IS FINALLY THROUGH

ALTHOUGH I'M NOT IN YOUR PRESENCE, MY SPIRIT
IS ALWAYS BY YOUR SIDE. I'LL ALWAYS BE WITH YOU
MORNING, NOON AND NIGHT. I'VE GONE ON TO A PLACE
WHERE THERE'S NO PAIN, SICKNESS, OR SUFFERING,
AND NO MORE DYING EVER AGAIN.

I KNOW THAT YOU LOVE ME, AND I HAVE A SPECIAL PLACE IN YOUR HEART,
BUT JUST REMEMBER THAT I LOVE YOU,
AND THIS IS ONLY A TEMPORARY PART.

Obituary

BROTHER THEODORE WRIGHT sixty-seven, of Valley Stream, New York departed his life on March 26, 2019. He was born on March 28, 1951, to Mr. Charles Myles, Sr. and the late Geneva Wright. Theodore was the oldest of seventeen siblings. He attended Palmer Elementary School in Keysville, Georgia and Waynesboro High School in Waynesboro, Georgia.

In his early twenties, Theodore also known as “Red”, moved to New York and worked at the Long Island Press newspaper during the 70s, and later worked as a buildings manager in Manhattan for over thirty years.

Red was an avid lover of sports and cars! He loved baseball and football. The New York Yankees and the New York Giants were his favorite teams! In his younger years, he believed he was a race car driver, along with his best friend, Lewis, they would head to the track to fix and race cars...all without a driver’s license! He believed he was a mechanic; he could listen to any noise in your car and diagnose it on the spot. Not fix it, but supervise and tell you how to do it! Red also loved gardening, he thought he was a farmer! You could always find him in the yard with a rake and some plant seeds in his hand.

Red was a lover of snacks: honey buns, watermelon, oranges, and Georgia peaches were his favorites. He would always get caught sneaking them because he wasn’t supposed to have them. He was a homebody that loved relaxing with his grandkids and his beloved dog, Juju Bean!

Theodore was an amazing father and worked very hard to take care of his children, always being there for them. He had a special place in his heart for children and animals. He was a quiet and dignified man. He was very gentle and consistently kind to everyone, but quick to tell you to “shut the heck up” and ‘cuss’ you right out. He loved vacationing back home in Georgia with his family. It was always his dream to return to Georgia once he retired to live out the rest of his days amongst his family and friends. In his earlier years, he was united in marriage to Janice Robinson.

He was preceded in death by: sister, Diane Wright; and brother, Barron Wright.

He leaves to cherish his memory: four daughters, Denise White (Roger), Tanita Robinson King (Sean), Capricia Robinson and Tracy Storey (Trendall); son, Jamelle Robinson (Rasheda); ten sisters, Esther Howard (Barry), Elean Perkins (Ralph), Darline Nesbit, Gloria Gray (Simpson), Sentheial Johnson (Barry), Carolyn Exposito (Santos), Carla Myles, Melita Myles Tammy Lambert and Cynthia Smith; five brothers, Freddie T. Martin, Jr., Kevin Martin (Tina), Frederick Grant, Charles Myles, Jr. (Tina) and Darryl Myles; sixteen grandchildren; thirteen great-grandchildren; and a loyal friend, Mrs. Josie Hill.

You may now rest easy knowing you are home!
