Obituary

NAOMI SMITH FLOWERS of Augusta, Georgia died on Sunday, August 18, 2019, at Augusta University Hospital. Naomi was born on May 29, 1945, to the late Jimmie Lee Smith and Essie Mae Smith in Douglas, Georgia.

Naomi received an ASN from Augusta College and worked as a NICU Nurse for twenty-nine years before retiring from the Medical College of Georgia. After retiring, she continued employment in the field she loved with over fifty years in the healthcare field. She was an avid basketball and softball player, and track and field athlete who enjoyed shooting hoops on the court her husband built for her in their backyard.

Naomi loved her family and her church. She never met a stranger who did not eventually become a friend. She often took in neighborhood children to shelter and nurture them as her own until they were able to get back on their feet. She was also a beloved member of the Sand Hills Community.

She is survived by: her loving husband of fifty-three years, Matthew Flowers; son, Martin Flowers; daughters, Angie D'Antignac, Kristie Flowers and Sonya (Scott) Clarke; sister, Evelyn Bussey; brothers, Jimmy Lee (Annette) Smith, Jr., Wilbert (Ophelia) Smith, J.C. Smith and Charlie Smith; grandchildren, Damian Flowers, Deontre D'Antignac and Kaitlin D'Antignac; four great grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.
