Life's Sentence

Life is meant to be lived in such a way as to live to the full and bring great glory to Creator God . Regardless of the missteps and mistakes and the wrongs done by us and to us along the path we trod; So take this as encouragement to write your life's sentence with bold flourishes. Live courageously so in the end your story is well written and there is no need for further explanation. Endeavor to end your life's sentence with an exclamation, but by all means to God be all glory!

Acknowledgements

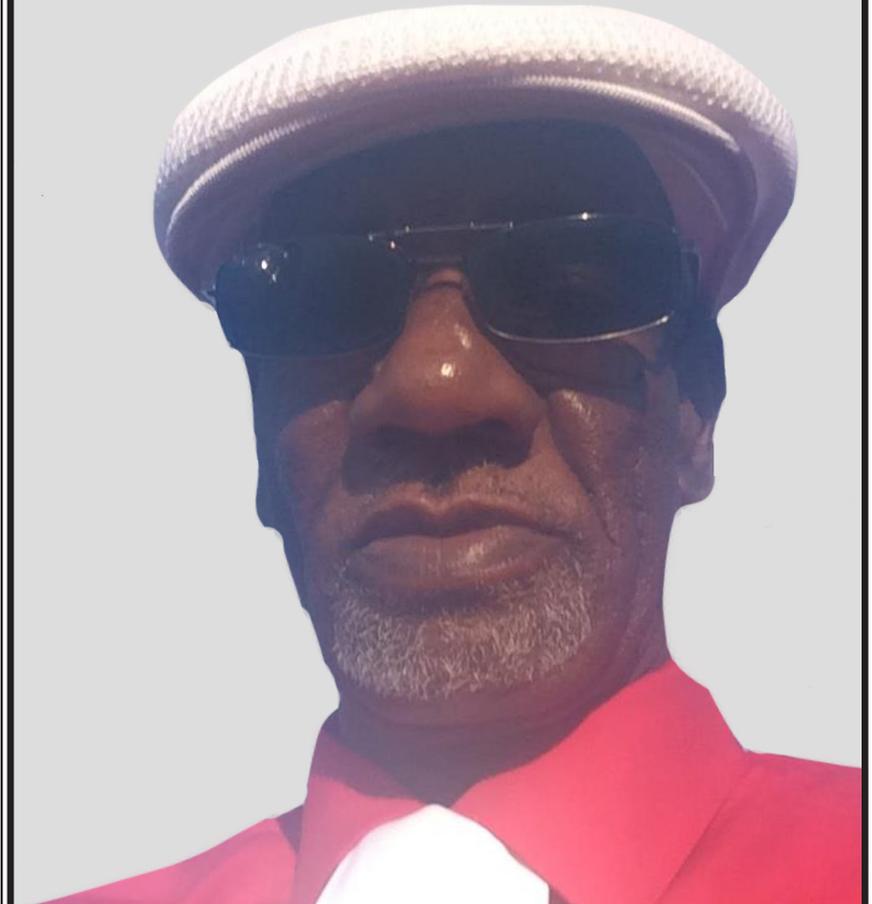

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent those beautiful flowers, that we saw sitting there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much whatever the part. - The Family

Obituary

Mr. Eddie Lee Ware was born on October 28, 1954, in Mobile, Alabama and departed this life on July 28, 2019, in Augusta, Georgia, where he resided. Eddie was an Army Veteran and also a hard worker. He retired from the Charlie Norwood V.A. Medical Center, where he worked in food service.

Eddie was a member of Good Samaritan Missionary Baptist Church in Augusta, Georgia.

He was loved by many and was known to be a sharp and nicely groomed dresser.

He was preceded in death by: his loving parents, Mr. Leo Tolbert and Mrs. Virginia Melissa Ware; brothers, Peter, Willie, Clarence, Simone, Leo and Earnest, all of Mobile, Alabama; sister, Deloris Ware of Mobile, Alabama; and grandson, Kaleb Lee Poindexter of Lynchburg, Virginia.

Eddie leaves cherished memories to: siblings, Robert (Carolyn) Ware, Elizabeth Ware and Precious Ware-Ruth, all of Mobile, Alabama; children, Melissa (Tyrone) Ware-Celey and Eddie (Crystal) Ware, both of Washington, DC, Derrick McClattie and Nicole McClattie of Lynchburg, Virginia; grandchildren, Ambria McClattie, Keyon Ware, Christopher Lattimore, Kamron Poindexter and Kyra McClattie; good friend, Charlie Washington; close niece, Yvette (Chester) Cromwell; and a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, friends and church family.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
