

Loving Memories of

A Special Son

To lose someone so special is really hard to bear it hardly seems believable that you're no longer there

You left us far too early before your time it seems and now you'll never have the chance to fulfill all those dreams

However hard it is though we'll take comfort in the thought of all the memories we have and the happiness you brought

You always lived life to the full but ours won't be the same until the day when we can see your smiling face again

Our Sincere Appreciation

We, the family, extend our sincere appreciation for your support given to us during our hours of bereavement. We have sustained a great loss, your prayers, visits and acts of kindness were comforting to us and will always be remembered.

The Obituary

Caden Elijah Lewis was born to Curtis E. Lewis and Dawn Ferguson Lewis on December 6, 2010, in Augusta, Georgia.

Caden was the light of everyone's world that he touched. There was never a dull moment around him. He was a jokester, funny, smart, witty and charismatic. He was definitely way before his time; a little grown man. He loved to play and build with legos, solve puzzles, and play on the iPad.

Left to cherish his memory: mother, Dawn Lewis; father, Curtis Lewis, Sr.; five brothers, Curtsi Lewis, Jr., Eric Bland, Dontavius Ferguson, Deshawn Lewis and Christian Lewis; grandfather and grandmother, Edwin Lloyd and Teresa Ferguson; two nieces; and a host of other relatives and friends.
