Revelation 21:4

"And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away."

Acknowledgements

We give honor to God for the expressions of love and kindness shown by so many relatives and friends during the passing of our loved one. Your visits, calls, flowers, cards, and other inspiring actions have given us the courage, strength, and wisdom to stand tall during this time of need. We would like to thank Encompass Health (Hospice) for being angels, caring for our loved one. Thank you to Beanca Sanders for her loving devotion and care to her "Ms. Geneva." May God bless all of you, one by one and name by name.

The Obituary

Geneva W. Roberts, eighty-four, entered into rest on September 5, 2019, peacefully at home.

She was a devoted mother and homemaker and a loving mother who loved God. She served as an usher at Franklin Covenant Baptist Church, with a continuous smile. Her favorite hobby was bowling and making sure that all of her family knew that they were loved.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, William F. Roberts. She also joins her sister and brothers in eternal rest.

She is survived by: her daughters, Patricia A. McClain of Augusta, Georgia and Jacqueline G. (Joshua) Roberts of Atlanta, Georgia; grandson, William (fiancée, Narada) McClain, Sr. of Augusta, Georgia; five great-grandchildren, Branden, KaShaundra, Briana, Ja'Quan and William, Jr.; sister, Dora Elam; one little angel on the way; and a host of nieces and nephews.

“The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name’s sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:

And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.”
