Special Acknowledgements

At this time, I would like to thank everyone for being here today to pay his or her respects to my grandfather, Warren Garnett. He would be pleased to see so many of his friends and family here today. Whether you knew him as a husband, father, grandfather, uncle, or friend, you probably had the same level of appreciation for him that I did.

Acknowledgements

With a deep sense of gratitude, we, the family, wish to express our appreciation for the many who have done so much, in so many ways, to express your kindness and sympathy in our time of bereavement. Rest assured, the heaviness of these moments has been greatly eased by your thoughtfulness. We gratefully acknowledge all of the appreciation, the many phone calls, visits, letters, love, flowers and prayers. God bless you and love you all!!

The Great Legacy of Mr. Warren Wren Garnett

Warren Wren Garnett was born on March 12, 1944, in Appling, Georgia, to the late Matthew and Molly Garnett.

He was united in marriage to Rosa E. Marshall, and to this union, three children were born.

He served and retired in the U. S. Army after eight years, earning numerous medals and badges, including the Army Commendation Medal for his service.

Those left to cherish his memories are: his wife, Rosa Marshall Garnett; two sons, Tyrone Garnett and Timothy (Natasha) Garnett; two daughters, Amelodie (James) Wiggins and Rotorya (Adam) Williams; brothers, Clinton (Tammy) McCladdie, Jr., James (Mary-ann) McCladdie, Gordon (Cynthia) McCladdie and Coy (Gloria) McCladdie; sisters, Carrie Bennings, Gracie McCladdie, Brently (Lester) Pollard, Renee (Jackie) Dunn and Stacey McCladdie; grandchildren, Nastacia Garnett, Tamina Dyers, Nakayla Garnett, Nakya Garnett, Natalie Garnett, James D. Wiggins and Montera Wiggins; great-grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“My grandfather was a great man. When I think about him the words that come to mind are: hard worker, caring, humorous, respectful, storyteller, craftsman and family man. These are just a few words that come to mind, but it is impossible to summarize how great a person he was in words.

Although we will miss him, his smile, his love, we take consolation in the good feelings of our memories.”

My Everyday Thoughts
Nakya Garnett

*If God granted me a view of heaven
Of all the beauty I'd see,
I'd search for you.
Your extravagant fro and your sparkling eyes
Are what I'd want to see most.
I'd treasure that moment for as long as I live
I search for pieces of you on Earth
And look to the heavens for signs
And every day, you're still in my mind.
I miss you more than words could say,
And I would give anything to talk to you today.*

A Granddaughter's Wish
Rotorya Williams

*The day you left and gained your wings
My heart just broke in two.
I wish you could've stayed with me
But heaven needed you.
You left me with memories.
And I love you still
No matter how much time goes by
You know I always will.
You were a very special person
With kindness in your heart.
And the love we have together
Only grows stronger now that we are apart.
I know I cannot bring you back
Although I wish it everyday.
A piece of me went with you.
The day you went away.*

We Love You, Papa!!!!
