"Don't Say"

Please don't say that I gave up, just say that I gave in; Don't say I lost the battle, for it was God's war to lose or win; Please don't give me wings or halos, that's for God to do; I want no more than I deserve, no extras, just my due. When you draw a picture of me, don't draw me as a saint; I've done some good, I've done some wrong so, use all your paint. Not just the bright and light tones, use some gray and dark; In fact, don't put me down on canvas, paint me in your heart. Don't just remember the good times, but remember all the bad; for life is full of many things, some happy and some sad. Bbut if you must do something then I have one request: forgive me for the wrongs I've done, and with the love that's left; thank God for my soul's resting. Thank God for I've been blessed, thank God for all who loved me. Praise God who loved me best.

The Obituary

Sean Delon "Pop" Williams was born to Alberta Williams and Eddie Blocker on June 12, 1978, in Edgefield, South Carolina.

Sean was a 1998 graduate of Strom Thurmond High School in Johnston, South Carolina. He also attended Piedmont Technical College in Edgefield, South Carolina and Midlands Technical College in Batesburg, South Carolina. He was employed at Amicks Farm as a Truck Driver.

Sean leaves behind to cherish his loving memories: his father, Eddie (Ella) Blocker; mother, Alberta Williams; brother, Reginald (Jessie) Williams; sisters, Miranda Williams, Myra (Leon) Counts and Ninfa (Nelson) Williams; stepbrothers, Kendrick (Trina) Stevens and Larry Lott; stepsister, Jacqueline (Greg) Silbert; nieces, Kéwandy Searles, Ashley (Maurice) Williams and Niesha Searles; nephews, Kahlil Bryant, Cameron Counts and Conner Bosserman; godbrother, Charles (Bernice) Sweeney; and a host of other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found that place at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
oh yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seems all too brief;
don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
