Last Request

Please don't say that I gave up, just say I gave in; Don't say I lost the battle, for it was God's war to lose or win; Please don't say how good I was, but that I did my best; Please don't give me wings or halos, that's for God to do; I want no more than I deserve, no extras, just my due. Please don't give me flowers or talk in real hushed tones; Don't be concerned about me now, I'm well with God, I've made it home; Don't talk about what could have been, it's over and it's done Just see to all my family's needs especially the little ones. When you draw a picture of me, don't draw a saint; I've done some good, I've done some wrong, so use all your paint; Not just the bright and light tones, use some gray and dark; In fact, don't put me down on canvas, paint me in your heart, Don't just remember the good times, but remember all the bad; For life is full of many things, some happy and some sad, But, if you must do something, then I have one request, forgive me for the wrong I've done, and with the love that is left, Thank God for my soul's is resting, Thank God for I've been blessed, Thank God for all who loved me, Praise God who loved me best

Obituary

A limb has fallen from the family tree. . . John Edward Jackson, affectionally known as “Mack”, was born and raised in Appling, Georgia, to the late Mr. and Mrs. General Beauregard Jackson, Sr. (Carrie), along with his siblings, G.B. Jr., Emilie Clark, Jeanette and Freddie, all of whom preceded him in death.

At an early age, he professed his faith in Jesus Christ and joined Solid Rock Baptist Church, where he was a dedicated member. His love for gospel music led him to serve in the choir, where he will be remembered for his lead vocal to “Trouble in My Way” by Luther Barnes.

He leaves to cherish his memories in the lives of his children: Edward Jackson of New Jersey, Elise Jackson, Sandra Jackson, Carolyn Bryant, Antoinette Bennett (Patrick) and Johnathan Jackson (Shante); grandchildren, Amber (Darrick), Brandon, Jennifer (Tiyana), Briana, Sandor, Maya, Kevin, Kameron and Johanna; sister-in-law, Mae Jackson; brother-in-law, Elbert Clark, Sr.; two aunts, Mrs. Sarah Evans and Mrs. Carrie Holmes; loving nieces and nephew, Gweneva, Aleta Massey (Daniel), Jennifer and Travis Willingham (Stephanie); special friend, Juanita Ryles; devoted cousins, Betty, Robert and George; and a host of other cousins and friends.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road

And the sun has set for me;

I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,

Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little but not too long

And not with your head bowed low;

Remember the love that we once shared,

Miss me but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take

And each must go alone;

It's all a part of the Master's plan,

A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,

Go to the friends we know,

And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,

Miss me but let me go.
