I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now, I'm free. I'm following the path God laid for me. I took His hand when I heard him call; I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way; I found that place at the close of day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss; oh yes, these things, I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much; good friends, good times, a loved ones touch. Perhaps my time seems all too brief; don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me free.

May the lord be with you all.

Until we meet again.

Obituary

“A man of many strengths, dependable, patient and virtuous. A man of few words but thunderous in actions. A loving man to family, who showed compassion for those known and unknown to him-did his all to help in time of need. A man of God, had a thirst for God’s word, and upon learning the word, applied it in his everyday life. He was held as a shining example for us to follow as a child of God; a man of love, devotion, commitment, and prominence, always left a lasting impression on the ones he in argue read it. A man that can walk in a room and showcase miles, is a man of essence. He never looked for praise; he was never one to boast. He just went on quietly working for the ones he loved the most.”

Eugene Donald Glasker was born on July 18, 1941, in Burke County, Georgia, to the late Mrs. Mamie Glasker-Ingram. He peacefully ascended into his eternal resting place on January 9, 2020, at Emory Decatur Hospital. Preceding him in death was his mother, Mamie, and two brothers, Robert and Johnny Glasker.

At a young age, Eugene accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior, where he then became a faithful member of the Jordan Grove Baptist Church. He was united in holy matrimony to the late Rosa O. Williams, and to this union, a son, Eugene Donald Glasker, Jr., was born.

After graduating from Lucy C. Laney in 1959, he began working at Davidson’s Department Store while enjoying his favorite pastime, playing semi-pro baseball. Later in 1963, he was inducted into the United States Army and three years later was honorably discharged. He then began working for the U.S. Postal Service until he retired after 40+ years.

He leaves to cherish his precious and loving memories: his son, Eugene Glasker, Jr., of Atlanta, GA; five brothers, Jerome (Diana) Ingram of Texas, Frank Ingram, Eric Glasker of Augusta, Georgia, Ivory “Gregory” Ingram and Bruce Ingram of California; four sisters, Obelia Glasker, Gwen Ingram-Johnson, Iris “Ann” Ingram and Monica Ingram-Forehand, all of California; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

“Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in Me. In my Father’s house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.” John 14:1-3 (KJV)
