

My Last Request

Please don't say that I gave up, just say that I gave in; don't say I lost the battle, for it was God's war to lose or win; please don't say how good I was, but that I did my best; just say I tried to do what's right, to give the most I could, not less; please don't give me wings or halos, that's for God to do; I want no more than I deserve, no extras, just my due; please don't give flowers, or talk in real hushed tones; don't be concerned about me now, I'm well with God, I've made it home; don't talk about what could have been, it's over and it's done, just see to all my family's needs, especially the little ones; when you draw a picture of me, don't draw me as a saint; I've done some good, I've done some wrong so, use all your paint; not just the bright and light tones, use some gray and dark; in fact, don't put me down on canvas, paint me in your heart; don't just remember the good times, but remember all the bad; for life is full of many things, some happy and some sad, but if you must do something then I have one request: forgive me for the wrongs I've done, and with the love that's left, thank God for my soul's resting. Thank God for I've been blessed, thank God for all who loved me, praise God who loved me best.

Acknowledgements

The Family of Alfonzo Eugene Lipscomb would like to extend our deepest gratitude to the Medical Staff and Hospice Care at Augusta University Medical Center (MCG). Your dedication to caring for our loved one will never be forgotten. We gratefully acknowledge the prayers, cards, flowers, and many other expressions of love and kindness extended to our family during our time of bereavement. God Bless you all!

Obituary

ALFONZO EUGENE LIPSCOMB was born on December 18, 1960, in Augusta, Georgia to Hubert and Lessie Lipscomb.

He attended school in Augusta. He later met and married his wife, Debra, and to this union, two children were born, Ashley and Henry.

In addition to his parents, Alfonzo was preceded in death by one sister, Jeanette Henley.

In his early years, he worked at the James Brown Radio Station as a DJ. He also worked many years for Mellow Mushroom and Boll Weevil Café. Alfonzo was a faithful worker who could be counted on.

He leaves behind to cherish his loving memory: his wife, Debra; children, Ashley Lipscomb of Woodbridge, Virginia, Henry Lipscomb of Augusta Georgia, Corey Washington of Beech Island, South Carolina, Alfonzo, Michael and Asia Marshall of Augusta, Georgia; fourteen grandchildren; sisters, Mary (John) Taylor of Clinton, Maryland, Patricia (Frank-deceased) of Augusta, Georgia and Anita (James) Hollis of Kathleen, Georgia; brother, Hubert Lipscomb of Augusta Georgia; nieces, Yvette Washington of Maryland, Theresa Johnson of Virginia and Alana (Leon) Carbon of Warner Robins, Georgia; special niece whom he adored, Sharon Sapp; nephews, Christopher Henley of Maryland and Frank Sapp of Augusta, Georgia; cousin, Ronnie (Theresa) Richardson of Atlanta, Georgia; his good friend/landlord, Emory Rabitsch; and many other relatives and friends.

Weep Not For Me

Weep not for me though I am gone

Into that gentle night.

Grieve if you will...

Not for long upon my soul's sweet flight.

I am at peace, my soul's at rest.

There is no need for tears.

For with your love I was blessed;

For all those many years.

There is no pain, I suffer not,

The fear now is all gone.

Put now these things out of your thoughts.

In your memory I live on.

Remember not my fight for breath;

Remember not the strife.

Please do not dwell upon my death,

But celebrate my life.
